

Buntús Cainte Chapter 15 Review

Draw lines to match Irish/English vocabulary.

an bhfuil sé?	is he?
nach bhfuil sé?	the fork
cá bhfuil sé?	the cup
an scian	the spoon
an forc	good boy
an spúnóg	the saucer
an pláta	I beg your pardon
an cupán	good girl
an fochupán	the knife
sin	isn't he?
sa chupán	the plate
gabh mo leithscéal	that
maith an cailín	in the cup
maith an buachaill	where is he?

Can You Translate?

Nóra: Féach, a Sheáin, tá an spúnóg sa chupán!

Seán: Ó tá; gabh mo leithscéal.

Nóra: Maith an buachaill!

Máire: Nach bhfuil mise go maith freisin, a mhamaí?

Nóra: Tá tú go hiontach. Ach cá bhfuil an scian sin?

Máire: Ó tá sí ar an mbord. Anois nach bhfuil sí ceart?

Nóra: Tá. Maith an cailín, a Mháire.

Cuir Gaeilge ar...

Where is the knife?

Where is the fork?

Where is the spoon?

Where is the plate?

Where is the cup?

Where is the saucer?

Is the knife on the table?

Isn't there a clean fork in the box?

There's a dirty cup and saucer on the table.

Is there a spoon in the sugar?

There's no tea in that cup.

Isn't there milk in that tea?

Can You Translate?

Nóra: Look, Seán, the spoon is in the cup.

Seán: Oh it is; I beg your pardon.

Nóra: Good boy!

Máire: Aren't I good also, mammy?

Nóra: You're wonderful, but where's that knife?

Máire: Oh, it's on the table. Now isn't it right?

Nóra: Yes. Good girl, Máire.