

Buntús Cainte Chapter 23 Review

Draw lines to match English/Irish vocabulary

isteach	he leaped
amach	he came
abhaile	is it?
d'imigh sé	he ran
tháinig sé	to, until
rith sé	either
shiúil sé	home, homewards
léim sé	he went off
thit sé	she (emphatic)
ó shin	in
cén áit?	he walked
sise	since
go dtí	out
ach oiread	he fell
an ea?	where?

Can You Translate?

Seán: Cá bhfuil daidí?

Nóra: D'imigh sé amach cúpla nóimead ó shin.

Seán: Cén áit?

Nóra: Níl a fhios agam. Tá sé sa ngairdín, is dócha.

Seán: Nach bhfuil Máire anseo ach oiread?

Nóra: Rith sise amach freisin.

Seán: Go dtí daidí, an ea?

Nóra: Is ea, is dócha.

He came in.

He went in.

He ran in.

He walked in.

He leaped in.

He fell in.

Daddy went out.

The children came home.

The dirty dog ran into the house.

The man walked out here.

I fell into water.

The cat leaped on the table.

a couple of minutes since

Can You Translate?

Seán: Where's Daddy?

Nóra: He went out a couple of minutes ago.

Seán: Where?

Nóra: I don't know. He's in the garden, probably.

Seán: Isn't Máire here either?

Nóra: She ran out also.

Seán: To Daddy, is it?

Nóra: Yes, probably.