

Buntús Cainte Chapter 24 Review

Draw lines to match English/Irish vocabulary

níor imigh sé	he didn't leap
níor tháinig sé	tonight
níor rith sé	he didn't walk
níor shiúil sé	to bed, to sleep
níor léim sé	tired
níor thit sé	he didn't go off
anocht	early
tinn	ill, sick
tuirseach	he didn't run
go luath	he didn't fall
a chodladh	he didn't come

Can You Translate?

Pádraig: Níor tháinig Seán abhaile fós?
Nóra: Tháinig, ach d'imigh sé leis a chodladh.
Pádraig: An bhfuil sé tinn?
Nóra: Níl maise, ach bhí sé tuirseach.
Pádraig: Agus cá bhfuil Máire?
Nóra: D'imigh sise a chodladh freisin.
Pádraig: D'imigh siad go luath anocht.

Cuir Gaeilge ar...

He didn't go out

He didn't come out.

He didn't run out.

He didn't walk out.

He didn't leap out.

He didn't fall out.

He didn't go in either.

He didn't come to school today.

Seán didn't run to the shop.

She didn't walk home.

The dog didn't jump into the clean water!

The boy didn't fall on the road.

He went off with himself.

Can You Translate?

Pádraig: Seán didn't come home yet?

Nóra: He did, but he went off to bed.

Pádraig: Is he sick?

Nóra: No, indeed, but he was tired.

Pádraig: And where's Máire?

Nóra: She went to bed also.

Pádraig: They all went off early tonight.